ORR Graduates Celebrate New Beginnings

By Laura Pedulli

Rainy and gray weather landed the Old Rochester Regional High School ceremony indoors, but the graduates' bright red and white gowns and the colorful attire of family and friends lent an atmosphere of celebration for the departing class of 2010.

Approximately 162 students filed into the high school gymnasium to reflect on their accomplishments as newly minted graduates. Principal Michael Devoll, School Committee Chairperson Peter Bangs and Superintendent Douglas White – among other committee members and district administrators – proudly looked on as the ORR High School Concert Band performed a powerful rendition of The National Anthem.

After congratulatory remarks from Principal Devoll and Superintendent White, Kelsey Jean Frink – President of the National Honor Society – introduced the Valedictorian, Jean Barbara Smith of Mattapoisett.

*Above: Work from artist and Tabor Academy graduate Bill Chisholm will be on display at the Marion Art Center. The opening reception will be held on June 11 from 6:00 to 8:00 pm. The show runs until July 14. Gallery hours are Tuesday through Friday, 1:00 to 5:00 pm and Saturdays, 10:00 am to 2:00 pm. For more information, call the Marion Art Center at 508-748-1266. *On the Cover: Congratulations to the Old Rochester Regional Class of 2010! Despite the day of rain that forced ceremonies indoors, the future was still bright for ORR seniors, who graduated on June 5, 2010. Congratulations also to Old Colony seniors, who graduated on June 6. Both stories are in this week's issue of The Wanderer. Ms. Frink cited Ms. Smith's long list of accomplishments, including her work in the drama club and the debate team, in addition to her vast knowledge of many disciplines. According to the program, the valedictorian earned departmental awards for distinction for English Language Arts, History and Social Science, Mathematics, Science, Technology and Engineering and Foreign Language – Latin.

"She has earned the honor of being the leadership of the class," Ms. Frink said. "She will use her talents for the betterment of society." Ms. Smith will attend the University of Massachusetts Amherst in the fall to study chemical engineering.

At this point, Ms. Smith presented both a lighthearted and intellectual speech to the class. Thanking administrators and taxpayers at large for funding education, she joked, "It took four principals, three vice principals and two superintendents to see us through." She also described a recent senior gathering at Silvershell Beach that bonded the class that she admitted took its time "getting its act together" in terms of school spirit.

Ms. Smith then launched into a talk about the properties of knowledge, discussing the implications of its limitless nature. "Rather than feeling depressed about your lack of knowledge, a simple solution is to realize that there is absolutely no point in trying to measure knowledge. Don't scare yourself with statistics about how much you know," she said, urging her classmates not to get critical of their GPAs, SAT scores and other measures of learning. She added: "Always be pleased with yourself, but never be satisfied."

The valedictorian declared that having a sense of the limits of your knowledge is healthy, and encouraged her class to continue exploring their interests by keeping abreast of the latest developments. She urged her classmates to "focus on the process of learning rather than the knowledge itself."

Ms. Smith then reflected on a recent project where she studied at length the physics of Frisbees; she said she felt gratification understanding physics by testing out properties firsthand with the disc. She joked her new knowledge improved her Ultimate game. In a fun moment during the speech, Ms. Smith threw a Frisbee to a classmate to great applause.

After the speech, the ORR High School Band performed "An American Elegy."

Following the performance, Principal Devoll presented a diploma to each graduating senior, with Superintendent White and School Committee Chairperson Bangs shaking the hand of each member of the Class of 2010. At that point, Mr. Devoll officially congratulated the departing seniors, who tossed their red and white caps high in the air to celebrate the milestone.

Old Colony Class of 2010 Rejoices

By Sarah K. Taylor

The Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School graduation took place on Sunday, June 6, 2010 at 1:00 pm. Senior Vice-President Katelyn Weigel was the Master of Ceremonies, and she began by introducing David J. Ferreira, who delivered the invocation. The day was hot, and the possibility of thunderstorms meant the graduation was held inside the building, where many guests discovered their programs could double as fans.

Mr. Ferreira shared his appreciation for the opportunity to "share in this exciting day." He spoke to the graduates, saying, "four years ago this month you were graduating from middle school and you were accepted here." He reminded them of feelings they may have had at that time, including apprehension and the question, "Will I be successful?" Mr. Ferreira reminded the graduates that he spoke to them on that morning in August and how he "knew in his heart that they would be successful."

Mr. Ferreira spoke about Old Colony and how after he had left the school the following year, "I learned what I knew all along – that this is a special school. There are none that are better!" He ended his invocation by describing the positive, caring, respectful connection between students and staff and left the graduates with a warm, fuzzy feeling – "today you will officially become a graduate of the finest vocational/technical school in New England. reality."

Senior Class President Jarod N. Ferreira gave a welcome speech, followed by the salute to the flag led by Brett T. Tchorz. Jarod Ferreira returned to the podium to deliver the Valedictorian Address.

Jarod told his classmates: "We stand on the brink of something new. Today, we close a chapter of our lives. Today, we begin a new chapter." He reminded us that, "success is not only triumphs, but failures, too." While Jarod stressed the importance of the education he and his fellow classmates have received, he did not forget about the value of friendships. He said he found those friendships at Old Colony. "Hours were spent in shop with people who may have become your closest friends." He talked about how vital it is to stay close to these friends, even after they have all "moved forward."

Jarod spoke about the importance of managing time, allowing for a balance between school, work and friendships, and the skills he has learned from his many teachers. He ended his speech with "in our time here we have all realized something about ourselves. Old Colony has shaped us. It has sheltered us, too. Congratulations! We've made it!"

Aimee Gonsalves and Alizabeth Jackson, the senior class secretary and treasurer then presented the class gift, a projector screen and ceiling mount to be used in the cafeteria, to Mr. Brown, the Superintendent-Director.

The Chairman of the School Committee, Mr. Vincent Ryan, then presented the awards and diplomas to the class of 2010. The graduation finished with a flourish; one tossed cap even landed in a basketball net and required a team effort to retrieve. The graduates then congregated outside where they were joined by beaming family and friends.

Sardinha Appeals Planning Board Decision

Marion Planning Board

By Laura Pedulli

A regular meeting of the Marion Planning Board was called to order by Chairman Jay Ryder on Monday, June 7 at 7:15 pm in the Marion Town Hall. Also present were board members Joseph Napoli, Steve Gonsalves, John Sweeney, Jay Crowley, Sherman Briggs and Planning Board Secretary Terry Santos. Tom Magauran did not attend.

The first scheduled meeting regarded an ANR submitted by Dan Aguiar of Sitec Inc on behalf of the Moore Marion Trust II for the property at 468 Point Road. Chairman Ryder said that due to a pending review of a development agreement by the town counsel, the applicant had requested a postponed hearing. As such, the board unanimously approved moving the hearing to June 21, 2010 at 7:20 pm.

Mr. Ryder then reported that Sardinha Family Trust – who recently received approval by the planning board of a new site plan – is appealing the decision with the Zoning Board of Appeals (ZBA) due to some of the conditions attached. The property in question – Always in Bloom – is located at 454 Wareham Rd. During the April 26 meeting on the application, the planning board required several conditions upon approval, including that the property provides sidewalks and treescapes and a restructuring of the curb cuts. At the time, Jack O'Leary of Merrill Associates – who represents the Sardhina Family Trust – had expressed concern that a sidewalk and new curb cuts would not work with the property's configuration.

Chairman Ryder said the announcement of the appeal is for informational purposes only. The official ZBA public hearing on the matter is scheduled for July 15.

In other business, Mr. Ryder briefly mentioned an inquiry regarding an oyster farm near Job's Cove. The state currently is sending divers to review the site and then will submit a report to the Board of Selectmen. Mr. Ryder said he expects that the planning board will be involved in the process despite its official opinion that a one-year moratorium should be placed on new aquaculture development. Mr. Ryder added that he has been contacted by residents regarding the oyster farm proposal.

The board also formally supported the Building Commissioner's decision to issue a cease and desist to Baywatch Realty after the developer clear cut an area in violation of the ZBA special permit.

At this point, the planning board approved the April 26 minutes as written.

Soon thereafter, the board opened and closed a public hearing regarding a special permit for a retail operation at Cumberland Farms. The continuation of the hearing will occur on June 21 at 8:00 pm.

With nothing left on the agenda, the board voted

Rochester Student Appears on TLC Show

By Anne O'Brien-Kakley

Rochester sixth-grader Joshua Winsper has a new aspiration – to be the first little person astronaut. For this diverse student, this is just one of his many plans for the future.

Josh, a student at Rochester Memorial School, had the opportunity of a lifetime during November of 2008 when he visited the first Space Camp for Little People. There was one detail that his mom withheld as he got ready for the weekend-long event in Huntsville, Alabama – the entire trip was going to be filmed as a part of TLC's "Little People, Big World".

"When we got there someone was like 'Josh, are you excited that they are going to be filming this weekend?' and Josh was like 'what'?" laughed Josh's mother Karen Winsper.

"I didn't know what they were talking about," added Josh.

Two of the three little people featured on "Little People, Big World", Amy and Zach Roloff, attended the Space Camp that weekend, and their camera crews came with them. Josh and his mother described the family as being "really nice" and "down-to-earth," despite the fact that four years of reality television has launched the Roloff family into fame.

The Space Camp program has several special branches, including a camp for the blind and visually impaired, and a camp for the deaf and hard-of-hearing. In 2008, a family friend and schoolteacher in Washington D.C., Geoff Mitchell, started up the first-ever Space Camp for Little People. In a spontaneous, last-minute decision, the Winspers decided that this would be a great experience for Josh.

Ms. Winsper discovered that the Roloff family would be filming during the camp and didn't tell Josh until he arrived in Alabama. Josh, a longtime fan of the TLC show, discovered the secret when he spotted Zach and Amy Roloff in an elevator at the facility.

The Roloffs participated with the camp students in all of their activities, and even lived at the dorm with them. According to Winspers, the show is completely spontaneous and unscripted, just like a reality show should be.

Josh, a fifth-grader at the time the show was filmed, was given the position of Flight Director for the simulated missions that he and his team tackled over the weekend. "I was in charge," said Josh, who pointed to a picture of himself sitting behind a command console, "and I had to follow a script." This "script" of commands would help Josh's team on their space missions.

Weightlessness exercises and a manned maneuvering unit were included in the program for the Space Camp weekend. A clip from the TLC program showed the Space Camp students engaging in a "Space Bowl" trivia game with Zach Roloff. The students even made small, working rockets to launch.

"The [Space Camp] staff were so great," said Ms. Winsper.

Before going to Space Camp, Josh had focused his interests on history and baseball. Now, he has been focusing on a possible future in space flight, either in space or as a controller.

"There are no limitations," said Ms. Winsper, as far as people of short stature working in the astronautics field.

Josh hopes to attend Space Camp for little people again, if an advanced program for older students is developed in the future. He still has his identification tags and his blue space suit from the trip.

The Winsper family has been waiting over 18 months for the Space Camp episode of "Little People, Big World" to appear on TLC, and it finally happened on Monday, June 7. At first, Josh's classmates thought he was joking when he said he was going to be on television. The Winspers planned a viewing party for their family and closest friends, and Josh's class at RMS planned on a classroom showing of the episode as well.

dealing with the burst water pipe that significantly damaged the building and contents on the evening of May 28. Over Memorial Day weekend, the police station building remained closed while the department worked out of a mobile unit provided by the Plymouth County Sheriff's office.

The cause of the burst pipe is yet unknown. According to Chief Mary Lyons, "there are many speculations, including the age of the pipe, a possible water surge, [or] corrosion."

According to Chief Lyons, "Business is as usual at the police department. Citizens coming to the police department for records or service should walk to the Plymouth Country Sheriff's truck and knock on the door."

Although some filing cabinets were water damaged, no court records were damaged. Most of the affected office furniture was left outside to dry out in the week following the pipe burst. Over the past week, the water damage has been assessed and damaged items, including furniture, filing cabinets and drywall, have been removed. Repairs to the interior of the building will begin during the week of June 7. Currently, there is no estimated timeline as to when the repairs will be complete.

Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen

By Anne O'Brien-Kakley

A regular meeting of the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen was called to order by Chairman Jordan Collyer on June 8, 2010 at 7:00 pm in the Mattapoisett town hall conference room. Also in attendance were Selectmen Paul Silva and George Randall, Town Administrator Michael Gagne and Assistant to the Selectmen Melody Pacheco.

After the Pledge of Allegiance and a moment for silence for those who have served the country, the Board voted to approve the minutes of the May 25 meeting, both open and executive session.

Under Action items, the Board also voted to approve the "Temporary Road Repair Agreement" for Dyar Road and at Pease's Point.

The Board also voted to allow Mr. Gagne to sign off on temporary road agreements from this point on, since there will be more of them in light of the recent road maintenance changes.

In a first appointment, the Board met with owners of the SouthCoast Local, formerly The Nest Diner, for a public hearing on a transfer of a wine and malt liquor license. This license transfer was approved with a couple

The Board then met with Sharon and John Spector in regards to uses at Goodspeed Island. The Spectors are Depot Street residents who have made repeated complaints to the town regarding unleashed dogs on the Goodspeed Island beach, shellfishing violations in the area and littering.

Ms. Spector said that unleashed dogs have been a particular nuisance and hazard, and had noted the same people allowing their dogs to run along the beach without leashes or tags. Despite a town sign that clearly states leash laws, Ms. Spector said, "There are still people who are not leashing their dogs… I think it's a hazard and a liability to the town." Ms. Spector said that the beach has become known as a dog beach, and claimed that the animal control department was not monitoring the area closely enough.

The Spectors also felt that there was unlicensed shellfishing taking place in the area unchecked. "Not everyone has their badge showing," said Ms. Spector. "I feel it should be monitored more closely. There are repeating offenders. They are out there."

To this, Natural Resources Officer Kathy Massey said, "We can't catch them all, but we'll catch them eventually." Officer Massey, who is also the animal control officer, said that she couldn't spend all her time waiting in one area for dog and shellfish violations. She said that she, or the police station, would respond to calls of violations. So far, the Spectors are the only family that has complained of problems in the Goodspeed Island area.

After some discussion, the Board clarified that, despite a sign forbidding dogs, the beach area was likely designated a dog beach at a town meeting in the 1990s, but the vote was rendered unofficial due to the fact that it was not recorded in the town meeting minutes. Since dogs are forbidden from most town beaches – including the wharf and town beach – dog owners have been limited to areas like Goodspeed Island, which has a rocky beach that is unsuitable for swimming. Dog owner Raymond Andrews defended the beach's use for dogs, saying, "We are taxpayers and we have a right to bring our dogs to the water."

The issue became more the problem of policing dog owners, to make sure that they clean up after their dogs and keep them controlled on a leash. The Board agreed that fines needed to be increased – a violation for not cleaning up dog waste is currently $10 and unleashed dogs carry a $25 ticket.

"I have no sympathy for people who let their dogs loose and don't clean up after them," said Selectman Silva. "People need to take responsibility for their pets."

Officer Massey said that there have been tickets written, but upon Selectman Silva's suggestion, both Officer Massey and Chief Mary Lyons agreed to increase a presence in the area during peak offender hours. Those hours, according to the Spectors, are 8:15 to 10:00 am, 4:00 to 6:00 pm (for dog offenses) and low tide (for shellfishing offenses). The Board also said that the town will have to make more of an effort to assure that the dog refuse bag container is kept fully stocked on a regular basis to encourage owners to clean up after their pets.

Barry Denham then met with the Board to discuss a snow removal plan, ensuring that the town will be properly prepared for the winter season in light of the May election, when town voters decided to keep the practice of the town removing snow from private roads. Mr. Denham also presented the Board with a plan to eliminate surplus town equipment with an upcoming auction, including an auction for the town's 1948 Adams road grader that has transmission problems. The auction will generate income and make room in the storage area for the highway department.

The Board then read a letter of appreciation and thanks from Fire Chief Andrew Murray, addressed to Mr. Denham and the Highway Department for their work in front of the fire station.

In an update, Chief Lyons informed the Board that, to stay current with the rates of surrounding towns, Mattapoisett would be increasing their ambulance fees incrementally over the next three years. While surrounding towns are up to 40 percent over Medicare rates, Mattapoisett is only 11 percent over Medicare, and Chief Lyons said it was time for the town to increase their rates.

Chief Lyons also gave an update on the police station, which sustained serious water damage when a second floor pipe burst on May 28, flooding the first floor and damaging first floor equipment. Emergency workers spent that entire night, into the morning hours, removing wet carpet and ceiling tiles, and Chief Lyons called it "a real disaster". Since the incident, the building has been emptied out and all regular business and communication is being conducted from a Plymouth County Sheriff's Office van in the parking lot. According to Chief Lyons, 911 calls are being dispatched from Fairhaven, but all other services are being conducted from the white van in the parking lot. Contractors have been out to assess the damage, and building inspectors, including Mattapoisett inspector Andy Bobola, have been through the building.

Chief Lyons praised all town workers who responded to the emergency call, and Chairman Collyer echoed her praise. "You did a tremendous job," he said to Chief Lyons. "We owe you a tremendous thank you… it speaks volumes to the caliber of employees we have in this town."

Chief Lyons said that any firearms that town residents had relinquished to the police station to be destroyed have been turned over to Village Vaults, a bonded storage service for firearms. The station turned the firearms over to Village Vaults to avoid rusting and damage to the firearms. If a town resident is contacted

Under the Town Administrator's report, Mr. Gagne encouraged the Board to vote to allow him to address dog nuisance cases instead of having to go through the Board of Selectmen every time. The Board agreed, and voted to allow Mr. Gagne to facilitate dog nuisance issues, with serious cases being brought to a public hearing in front of the Board.

Under notes and announcements, Ms. Pacheco announced:

SIGNS OF ILLNESS

I just took over the care of my grandfather's dog. What are some of the signs of illness that I should look for?

First, choose one of the veterinarians in your area and make sure that your new dog has his annual vaccinations and heartworm test. Then, signs of illness usually include a change in his routine. You may notice: loss of appetite, vomiting, diarrhea, nasal discharge, coughing, excessive thirst, frequent urination, pale or bleeding gums, excessive scratching or licking, and lumps or growths on or under the skin. Limping and reluctance to move are signs of pain and discomfort.

Pine Island Subdivision Hearing Continued

Mattapoisett Planning Board

By Sarah K. Taylor

A scheduled meeting of the Mattapoisett Planning Board was called to order by Chairman Thomas Tucker on June 7, 2010 at 7:00 pm. Also present were Board members John Mathieu, Robert B. McNamara, Karen Field, recently elected member Ron Mello, and Secretary Tammy Ferreira.

The first order of business for the evening was a public hearing regarding a subdivision of a property on Brant Beach Ave, Highland Ave and Pinehurst Ave belonging to Demetrios T. Kalkanis. Mr. William F. Madden of G.A.F. Engineering, Inc, the engineer for Mr. Kalkanis, explained that there is currently one parcel of land with two houses on it, and Mr. Kalkanis is seeking to separate into two separate lots.

In 1967, a zoning law went into effect which would determine whether the houses could be grandfathered for subdivision. Mr. Mello asked to have the date when the houses were built verified before a decision would be made.

The public hearing regarding a 5.62-acre vacant parcel of land off Pine Island Road in Mattapoisett with applicants Timothy M. and Greta C. Fox was reopened. Engineer Dave Davignon from N. Douglas Schneider and Associations, Inc. represented the applicants.

Chairman Tucker explained that the Board had not yet received the peer evaluation from Field Engineers (the engineers hired to give a third-party assessment) and would therefore not be making a decision during the meeting, but that any comments or questions about the property could be addressed during the continued hearing. Chairman Tucker said also that new member Mr. Mello could participate in the hearing, but must recuse himself from voting, since he had not participated all along.

Mr. Davignon wanted a chance to update the Board on the revisions he has made to the plans since the last public hearing. He presented a cover letter to the board outlining these revisions which included: underground electric, (changed from overhead in response to a request made), dry detention ponds, a large culvert and a second culvert being replaced by two large pipes, and a stone water drainage analysis which has been completed and submitted to Field Engineers.

Mr. Davignon requested that a waiver be granted regarding the change of the proposed road from paved to a sixteen-foot gravel road. The Conservation Commission has asked Mr. Davignon not to come back to them until all waivers have been resolved, and will not provide information to the Planning Board until that time. Chairman Tucker again stressed that a decision would not be made at the June 7 hearing.

Some questions were raised by the public, including more concern about the drainage issue. One resident said, "It's already a bad situation. Any addition or change could be really serious for the rest of us."

Chairman Tucker responded, "We can't ask them to change a pre-existing problem. They can control their property." Mr. Mathieu later added, "It sounds like a drainage problem is there already. We're beating a dead horse."

A motion was made to continue the hearing on June 21, 2010, at which point the peer evaluation from Field Engineers will be complete. The meeting was adjourned at 8:35 pm.

Rochester COA Considers Senior Daycare

Rochester Board of Selectmen

By Anne O'Brien-Kakley

A regular meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen was called to order by Chairman Naida Parker on June 7, 2010 at 6:55 pm. Also in attendance were Selectmen Richard Nunes and Bradford Morse, and Assistant to the Selectmen Veronica Lafreniere.

The minutes of the May 24 meeting were approved as written.

Chairman Parker took a moment to recognize the work of Rochester Memorial School teacher Gary Cushman, who is retiring after 35 years. The Board sent Mr. Cushman a certificate of appreciation.

Under Appointments, the Board met with Rochester Council on Aging director Sharon Lally in regards to a proposed senior day care service that the COA would like to see annexed to their building. The project, which is still in its planning stages, would be grant-funded and financially self-sustaining.

Ms. Lally said that a committee of 23 people have been meeting regularly to make this project a reality, and they are putting together a proposed operating budget to submit along with their grant paperwork. The programs would be tailored for isolated, depressed and early-stage dementia patients, to get them less housebound and more involved. Ms. Lally described this daycare as a social model, requiring a 1 to 8 staff to patient ratio, versus the much more involved medical model, which requires a 1 to 6 ratio.

The committee members have been touring other area senior daycare sites to get a feel for what they want to see in a Rochester COA adult daycare center. They were particularly impressed with a facility they visited in Dighton, which had a home-like interior and took in 20 patients a day from seven different communities.

"It's been a learning experience for everyone involved," said Ms. Lally. "But we are still in the planning and learning stage." Ms. Lally said that Coastline Elderly Services might be able to help qualifying seniors attend the proposed senior daycare center.

According to Ms. Lally, the annex, which may be in the form of a pre-fab addition, would be partially staffed with volunteers and interns. Currently, the Rochester COA has 173 volunteers, and works with schools like Bristol Community College to fulfill human

The Board then voted to apply for $174,000 from the Executive Office of Energy and Environmental Affairs FY11 Local Acquisitions for Natural Diversity (LAND) Program to acquire 35 acres as part of the Carr Family Bogs Land Preservation Project.

Under the Town Administrator's report, Chairman Parker read a memo from Richard LaCamera about a meeting between the Board of Selectmen and the Planning Board to discuss sharing a Town Planner with Wareham. This meeting will take place at the next scheduled Board of Selectmen meeting on June 21.

The next scheduled meetings of the Rochester Board of Selectmen are June 21, July12, July 26, August 9 and August 23.

Kathleen Isernio and Director of Student Services Teresa Hamm.

The meeting began with a recognition ceremony led by Chairperson Rood to applaud the service of faculty, students and parents. Ms. Rood thanked retiring physical education teacher Gary Cushman and Assistant Principal Sue Norton, both who have worked at the school since 1976. "[Mr. Cushman and Ms. Norton] started on the same day, so it is fitting they are retiring on the same day," said Ms. Rood. The chairperson lauded Mr. Cushman as "the driving force behind the annual field day at the end of the year" and the fact that Ms. Norton "made it a mission to know every student and family by their names."

"My memories go way back," commented Ms. Hartley. "[Ms. Norton] always has been a major part of the school culture and [Mr. Cushman] inspired us, adults and children, with his fitness lifestyle … We'll all miss you very much."

In response, Mr. Cushman said he "highly enjoyed being here" and Ms. Norton commented that, "it was a pleasure serving the children." Ms. Rood announced that books are being donated in honor of their accomplishments.

Ms. Rood then honored the following parents and volunteers for their service to RMS: Judy Belliveau, Rosalind Braza, Jean Faunce, Cheryl Gaspar, board member Ms. Rounseville, Andrea Patisteas and Kate Tarleton. The chairperson noted that these individuals each have volunteered between 1,500 and 2,000 hours in a variety of capacities, including assisting with fundraisers, the holiday workshop, PTO events, cleaning up after dances, making costumes for theater performances, and working on the building committee. "There efforts do not go unnoticed; they are witnessed by everyone in the school," she said.

Lastly, Ms. Rood recognized students who participated in Destination Imagination. Many of the students attended the meeting and showed off puppets they created for DI competitions.

The official meeting then began with the first item of business: a request from sixth grade teacher

Danni Kleiman and Kindergarten teacher Debbie Clarke to build a Sixth Grade Friendship Wall next fall in the north courtyard. She said the sixth graders developed the specifications of the Friendship Wall, which serves as a meeting place for those students and Kindergarteners. She said donors have provided all of materials for the wall's construction.

"When children participate, the school becomes theirs," Ms. Kleiman said, saying that the Friendship Wall will lead to "ongoing tradition and ritual." The board then formally approved the construction of the wall this fall to occur in concert with the renovation.

In the superintendent's report, Mr. White mentioned an ORCTV task force that is investigating more deliverables to air on television. He then discussed the instructional council's look at enhancing professional development in multiple areas, including methods of handling bullying.

In his summary of RMS news, Principal Ryan reported that school enrollment is estimated at 557 students next fall – a significant drop from the 607 students currently registered. A particularly large sixth grade class leaving RMS – as well as lower than usual Kindergarten enrollment figures – accounts for this change.

In news related to the RMS building expansion and renovation effort underway, Mr. Ryan said that pre-cast panels had arrived on site. He said that on June 18, RMS officially would close for renovations; as such, the building will be emptied in its entirety. "It is a huge undertaking," he said, noting that the librarian is offering students the chance to take home 10 books this summer to help empty the shelves. Mr. Ryan said the school is seeking additional volunteers to help to clear the library shelves.

On a related subject, Mr. Ryan discussed at length an unanticipated need to reconstruct certain bathrooms to ensure that roof HVAC equipment properly functions. He said the contractor is planning to shut the restrooms during the first three months of the school and will re-direct children to other bathrooms.

Ms. Hartley expressed concern about this arrangement. "I'm worried; this has a big impact on children," she said. "Can we put a little pressure on the builders to get those bathrooms put in ASAP?" Mr. Ryan said the delay mostly is due to the lengthy turnaround time for certain restroom equipment. Ms. Hartley conceded that point but spoke again: "I support as much pressure as possible. It affects safety, teaching and learning," she said.

Later during the meeting, Mr. Scholz reported on a "very nice" groundbreaking event for the construction/expansion project and noted that overall, "things are on schedule and teachers are kept well informed."

The board formally approved the May 5 minutes with minor modifications.

In the business report, Ms. Isernio requested six budget transfers to accommodate shortfalls in line items for art supplies, math supplies, science supplies, advertising, substitutes, and tuition for a Project Grow teacher. The board approved all six transfers, which totals $25,807.90.

In a discussion on the FY11 budget, Mr. White said administrators are looking for solutions to handle projected shortfalls. Ms. Rood said that due to an estimated $174,000 deficit, the school would not fill the Assistant Principal position. Also, the school is reducing the kindergarten buses from two to one. Ms. Rood added that changes in state aid still pending at the state level might lead to additional cuts.

"We are in the proverbial between a rock and a hard place," commented Mr. Scholz.

In more optimistic news, Mr. Ryan noted that the State Senate just voted to restore funding for full day kindergarten program.

In a special report to the committee, Old Rochester Regional Director of Food Services Suzanna Souza provided the results of a March Department of Education (DOE) review of cafeteria nutritional content. Specifically, the DOE found that the RMS food:

• Meets the nutrient analysis except the sodium was too high.

• Total fat is below target of less than 30 percent of total calories.

Ms. Souza said that RMS will make several changes to the menu to lower the sodium content, which include using more fresh and frozen vegetables instead of the canned, changing whole-wheat crust to a whole-wheat wedge pizza, working with vendors to order lower sodium products, and serving grilled cheese with two slices of cheese instead of three while offering a supplemental four-ounce yogurt to meet protein requirements.

The food director then discussed general proposed changes in the food service at RMS. She discussed training cooks to user fresher products, using new serving trays and additional equipment to prepare healthier meals, using color and shapes to help students choosing meal components, and installing the NutriKids point-of-sale cafeteria system. Ms. Souza addressed the $8,537.19 shortfall in the food service program and recommended increasing lunch prices to $2.50 from $2.25 to raise $11,029.50 in new monies that would offset a potential shortfall next year.

In response, Mr. Scholz remarked on the downward trend in the RMS food service revenue. "If interest in meals had stayed high, we'd have no problem with a deficit… We should focus on getting interest up instead of raising prices," he said.

Mr. White agreed that, "good food service programs are cost neutral," adding that Ms. Souza will transfer some of her responsibilities to a new manager at ORR, significantly freeing up her time to focus on the food program. However, he said he supports the increase. "If this budget is tight, next year's budget is tighter," he said. Ms. Rood agreed with his assessment.

Ms. Laliberte also weighed in, stating that a price increase makes sense if RMS is seeking higher quality food.

However, after a lengthy give-and-take on the matter, the board ultimately decided not to increase the lunch price, with the option to defer the decision to see if new measures increase interest in the food program. Also, Ms. Hartley requested that Ms. Souza provide to the board monthly financial information on the program.

Mr. White then discussed Tri-Town school regionalization efforts and reported that during a recent five-chair meeting, a need was determined for an additional school representative from each committee. Mr. Scholz volunteered to serve on the regionalization committee.

In other agenda items, the board looked at August dates for the annual school committee summer retreat. Further, Mr. White announced that RMS committee meeting nights would be moved to Thursdays starting in the fall.

In future agenda items, Mr. White stated that the joint school committee meeting is scheduled for June 27.

The board voted to adjourn at 8:24 pm.

the achievements of my sister, Jean Smith. But as the night progressed, I found myself celebrating the incredible achievements of all the seniors, some of whom I know and others whom I do not. By the end of the night, I was highly impressed by the hard work every senior has done over these past four years. Many students went above and beyond any expectations for them, not only excelling in their academic classes, but also with their community service. The list of awards and recipients from Senior Awards Night is quite extensive, especially with the large number of scholarships the students were awarded, but this is because the talents of the class of 2010 range widely.

The evening started with recognition for certificates of excellence in the various senior classes. These certificates of excellence go to the student with the top average in that particular class. After the certificates of excellence, one student received the department award, which recognized the student with the highest average in their classes for all four years of high school. The first department to announce the recipients of the awards was the English department. The certificates of excellence were as follows: AP English 12, Jean Smith; Creative English 12, Spencer Johnson; Creative Writing II, Kelsey Frink; Media Literacy, Stephanie Perry; Journalism, Leigh Costello and Yulia Motta; Theater, Ian Vincent; and Poetry, Jenna Clark. The department award went to Jean Smith.

The second department was the Foreign

ROTH IRA'S

What direction do you think taxes will be going in the future?

A significant tax planning opportunity?

Roth IRA Conversions

With the Tax law changes for 2010 regarding ROTH IRA Accounts, many individuals now have the ability to convert their Traditional IRA Account to a ROTH IRA Account which represents a significant tax planning opportunity.

With Traditional IRA Accounts and meeting the requirements, contributions are deductible the year that they are made. Taxes are deferred until distributed from the account. This can be a pay me later scenario.

With a Roth IRA the contributions are never deductible because contributions are made with after tax dollars. However, if all the requirements are met, the contributions plus the gains may be withdrawn without any tax liability. This is a pay me now scenario.

Is it prudent to take a tax deduction today, to pay taxes later, in what may be a higher tax environment?

There is much more you will need to know about this subject before you make a decision if a conversion is as good as it sounds. You must seek Professional Guidance to determine if this strategy may be beneficial for you.

If you have not been made aware of this change in the tax law pertaining to Roth IRA Accounts, you need to talk to someone who understands the change and how this may impact your retirement years.

To qualify for the tax free penalty free withdrawal of earnings, a Roth IRA must be in place for at least five tax years, and the distribution must take place after age 59 1/2 or due to death, disability, or a first time home purchase (up to $10,000 life time maximum). Before taking any specific action, be sure to consult with your tax professional

To the Editor:

During the week of May 17, the sounds of little voices filled the front rotunda of Sippican School. It was our annual Kindergarten Visit Week. 55 newly enrolled 2010/2011 kindergartners and their parents took part in visits in the classrooms and a tour of our beautiful school. Each day we welcomed our new little friends to join the current kindergarteners in typical class activities such as Math Work Places and Read-Aloud story time while their parents were led on a tour by former Kindergarten parents Jane McCarthy, Leanne Dineen, Susan Swoish and Michelle Poirier.

The Kindergarten team wanted to give an authentic experience to the incoming classes. We invite them into our classrooms during the school year so that they can join in with current children and see a full Kindergarten in action. The tour offered parents the opportunity not only to see our school, but also to ask questions and listen to the answers from a parent's point of view and experience.

If you have a child who will be five years old on or before August 31 and have not registered him or her for Kindergarten, you are welcome to do so anytime between 9:00 am and 3:00 pm at the Sippican School Office. If your child attended a kindergarten other than Sippican School, we are also registering new incoming children entering First Grade at this time. First Graders must be six years old on or before August 31.

We are all looking forward with anticipation to welcome these young children to Sippican School in September.

To the Editor:

Judy Belliveau and I would like to thank all the parents that participated in one way or another for the Staff Appreciation Lunch for the ORR Junior and High School. Thank you to all the parents that came to assist with the event, without their generously giving of their time in setting up, serving and cleaning up, the event would not have been possible. Thanks to all the parents that sent food – it was all delicious and there was plenty of variety.

Thanks to the parents that manned the phones coordinating the food delivery and work crew for the day. Finally, thanks to all the parents that contributed money for the event, it was well spent on food, decorations, plants for the tables, drinks and plastic ware. As always, Judy and I worried that there would not be enough food, or workers, but the event came together quite nicely that Friday. There was plenty of food, even leftovers which were left for the Drama Club that had a function that evening. We were also able to stock the teachers' lounges with leftover drinks and non-perishable foods (chips etc).

I also would like to pass on the numerous 'thank you' comments we got from the teachers and staff throughout the lunch, I estimate we served over 150 staff members and all commented on how good the food was, to include an awesome dessert spread, and how much they appreciated the event. Once again, thank you for all the support for the event. Have a safe and enjoyable summer.

Relay For Life of Tri-Town

The American Cancer Society Relay For Life of Tri-Town is just weeks away on June 11-12, 2010. This "celebration of life" brings the Tri-Town community together in a unified effort to fight cancer.

Former and current cancer patients, those who have lost a loved one to cancer, families, businesses, civic organizations, and the public are invited to take part in this exciting team event. Relay For Life takes place from 6:00 pm on June 11 until 12:00 pm on June 12 at the Old Rochester Regional High School track, 135 Marion Road, Mattapoisett.

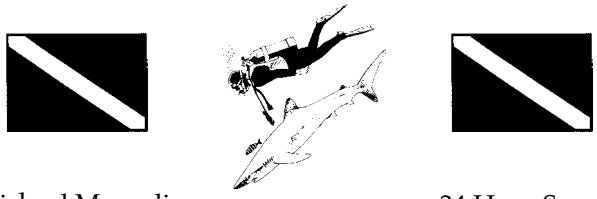

The American Cancer Society Relay For Life is a family-oriented event where participants enjoy the camaraderie of a team and also raise funds to help eliminate cancer. Participants camp out at the Relay site, and when they are not taking their turn walking, they will take part in fun activities and enjoy entertainment by the ORRHS Drama Club, Jazz Ensemble with Koby Williamson, Sean Packard and Company, and DJ Roland Grenier from Twilight Sound. The event helps communities celebrate those who have faced cancer, remember loved ones lost, and fight back against the disease.

Teams from friends and families, companies, churches, organizations, hospitals, and schools collect donations and participate in fundraisers enabling themselves to win individual and team prizes for their efforts. Campsites are decorated in this years' theme of "Decades" and will be judged as well as the team with the "Most Spirit." There will be many on-site fundraisers, theme laps, and fun throughout the night! A Survivor's dinner will be held in their honor. All those Survivor's wishing to attend must pre-register with Maureen McCarthy at 508-758-4714 or Pam Hiller at 508-758-2579. Our Luminaria ceremony is an outstanding, emotional event that should not be missed. Please come and participate or just stop by to support everyone involved.

on the field and Trooper Dan Clark will sing the National Anthem. Pre-game ceremonies will begin at 4:15 pm with game-time scheduled for 5:00 pm. There will be an autograph session for all fans after the game. The June 13 game will be located in the Spillane field, 54 Marion Road in Wareham.

Baseball is as much a tradition on Cape Cod as cranberries, bass fishing, and tourism, and the 126-year-old Cape Cod Baseball League, with roots tracing back to Union soldiers returning home from the Civil War, the Cape League originated in 1885 and was reorganized from individual town teams into the Cape Cod Baseball League in 1923. It is now the premier baseball league in the country.

Fielding the nation's best summer talent and each year graduating its players to stardom in Major League Baseball, the Cape League typifies all that remains pure in the game. From the use of wood bats, to the allure of the serene setting of the Cape's beaches and cool summer nights, the Cape League offers fans a brand of baseball difficult to duplicate.

There are 10 league teams separated in the East and West Divisions – they are the Bourne Braves, Cotuit Kettleers, Falmouth Commodores, Hyannis Harbor Hawks, and Wareham Gatemen in the West and the Brewster Whitecaps, Chatham Anglers, Harwich Mariners, Orleans Firebirds, and Yarmouth-Dennis Red Sox in the East.

With free admission to all 220 regular season games, including 22 at Spillane Field home of the Wareham Gatemen, there is little debate that the Cape League remains at the forefront of baseball today. As declared by the U.S. Congress last summer, "The Cape Cod Baseball League is truly America's League".

American Legion Meeting

The monthly meeting of the American Legion Florence Eastman Post 280 is held on the third Wednesday of each month at the post hall at 3 Depot Street at 7:00 pm. This month's meeting is scheduled for June 16.

All members are welcome to attend. The board is always looking for new ideas and input as to how we can better serve our fellow veterans and the community of Mattapoisett.

The release of tickets for the clambake has been accomplished and the reception at this point has been great. We will work on finalizing bake plans during this meeting and will prepare for the June 29 Ned's Point Cookout for the Veterans from the Brockton VA. Adjutant Barry Denham will report on the Memorial Day Ceremonies and our Annual Flag Day visit to Center School, which were previously held. While the retirement of Stan Ellis will create a difficult change for us, we were relieved to hear that Stan's work was not in vain and the music of Old Hammondtown will still be available for the town and our ceremonies, starting with Veteran's Day in November.

Sabecky President and CEO of Community Connections. "We are truly a community organization. The services we provide enrich the lives of the people with disabilities we serve and give back to the community on a daily basis."

For Community Connections, local community involvement is a daily priority in every program and center. The Marion and Fairhaven programs collect food for Damien's Food Pantry on a monthly basis, and clients are involved in collecting books for a local battered women's shelter. Therapeutic riding at Wellspring Farms is a weekly activity for many program participants while others give back by prepping handicap accessible gardens every spring.

In an organization that serves over 675 clients, Community Connections makes it a priority to keep the people they serve active and involved, while helping clients to reach personal goals.

As a local non-profit, Community Connections depends on the support of local residents and businesses to continue providing the highest quality services to people with disabilities. Their annual Golf Tournament being held on June 14 at the Bay Club at Mattapoisett is one such way to show support.

The tournament is a best ball of the foursome format with a shotgun start at 1:00 pm. Golfers can check in at 11:30 am and enjoy some of the most impressive practice facilities on the SouthCoast.

Prior to his retirement he was President of Hathaway-Braley Wharf Co. in Fairhaven.

He enjoyed weekend boating with his family on Buzzards Bay and the Elizabeth Islands prior to his moving to Westport in 1989 where he continued to enjoy boating on the Westport River.

Tri-Town Education Foundation

• Taste of the Tri-Town – The Old Rochester Tri-Town Education Foundation, a fund of the Community Foundation of Southeastern Massachusetts (CFSEMA), will host the 2nd annual "Taste of the Tri-Town" on June 18 to support local public education.

The evening will feature a wine-tasting by Spirits of Marion, and samplings of the best of tri-town restaurants and purveyors of fine food. A "Taste of the Tri-Town" will be held from 7:00 to 9:00 pm at the Mattapoisett YMCA, 38 Reservation Road, Mattapoisett. Student and alumni musicians from the tri-town public schools will perform.

Over 20 Tri-Town restaurants will be represented in the Taste of the Tri-Town.

Also known as the "Lighthouse Fund" – lighting the way for education - the Foundation was officially established in November 2006 with the election of a 17-member Board of Directors and a slate of officers. These 17 concerned board members, knowing that an excellent education is expensive, decided to take a page from private educational organizations who have raised endowment funds for many years to support their schools.

The Foundation is managed by CFSEMA, and is working toward creating a significant endowment from private donations and grants to enhance and enrich the educational experience of students at public schools in Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester. As an endowment involves spending only interest earned on the fund and not capital, the Foundation is likely to benefit the school system for generations to come. More than $150,000 has been raised to date. The interest on the fund paid for a dozen small grants to educators over the past three years. One of these was a grant to the ORR Junior High to study the Shakelton adventure. At the June 18 event, many of the grant recipients will be providing information on what these grants have accomplished.

Tickets to "Taste of the Tri-Town" are $40 and are available at Lloyd's Market, 4 Hartley Road, Rochester, the Marion General Store at 140 Front Street, and Rogers Gallery on Route 6 in Mattapoisett, as well as at the public schools in the three towns. For tickets or more information, call Sue Grosart at 508-748-0180. All proceeds benefit The Lighthouse Fund/Old Rochester Tri-Town Educational Foundation.

The Lighthouse Fund is also looking for interested individuals from the three towns who wish to be part of this effort by serving on the Board. If you have

Center School Donates Quilt to Women's Shelter

Anne O'Brien-Kakley

anne@wanderer.com

One child in need is going to be a little warmer this year, thanks to the kindness of Diane LeRoy's Center School second-graders. What started as a Mother's Day project morphed into a goodwill endeavor aimed at improving one child's life with a handmade treasure.

In March, Ms. LeRoy's class started crafting patchwork pillowcases for their loved ones. Although it was technically a Mother's Day assignment, fathers and aunts were also recipients of the pieced-together pillows. The children discovered that they loved sewing and decided that they wanted to work on an even bigger project.

And that's how the flannel floral quilt was born. On June 3, the students sat proudly in front of their flannel patchwork as their teacher, Ms. LeRoy, presented the quilt to Women's Shelter coordinator Rebecca McCullough.

Ms. McCullough thanked the children and told them that she was going to display the quilt at the UMass Dartmouth quilting exhibit over the weekend. The children's quilt was included with all the display quilts from the Shining Tides quilters group.

Ms. McCullough said that there are three shelters in the New Bedford area that the Women's Center operates. These shelters provide support and emergency services for women all over South Coast Massachusetts, including Mattapoisett, Marion and Rochester. Besides giving women resources in domestic violence and sexual assault cases, the Women's Center also sees young families with children in their shelters.

"These children have had to leave so much behind," said Ms. McCullough, who fought to keep her voice steady. "When someone makes something for them, it means so much."

The quilt was pieced together and bound by more experienced seamstress volunteers – retired assistant teacher Barbara Pepin and Center School librarian Luz Jackivicz. Besides helping to put the quilt together, these volunteers also taught the kids to sew. "A lot [of the children] have been going home and sewing on their own – even the boys – and it's a good age to start," said Ms. Jackivicz, who will be retiring from Center School this year, but said that she would like to come back next year to volunteer again.

Ms. LeRoy said that giving the quilt to a child in need was her students' idea. They didn't want to raffle the quilt off for a charity, but rather, they wanted it to go to a child in need. Even when Ms. McCullough offered to hang the quilt in the Women's Center, the class still said that they wanted the donation to be a keepsake for a child who really needed it.

Besides being a wonderful lesson in community sharing, the quilt project also incorporated another lesson that Ms. LeRoy stresses in her classroom – recycling. All the fabric pieces were given to the classroom from art teacher Diane Perry's "Beautiful Junk" campaign. Ms. Perry collects scraps of fabric, old greeting cards and other sundries for students to use in projects. These scraps came from that "Beautiful Junk" collection.

As a part of the project, Alyson Stellato and Mia Beams, both Center School students, wrote an article on the quilt donation for Tri-Town Topics, the Old Rochester Regional District newsletter. In their article, the young ladies say that inspiration for the class quilt project came from a book they read: The Quilt Story by Tony Johnson. "The second graders had a great time making this quilt," said Ms. Stellato and Ms. Beams in their article, "and they were excited to make the donation."

A hand-sewn patch adorns the back of the quilt, listing all the students who helped put it together. Those students are: Tyler Boardman, Riley Branagan, Blake Dennison, Emma Gabriel, Jack LeBrun, Briana Lynch, Erin Scott, Elizabeth Tracy, Brooke Boucher, Bethany Cabral, Karina DeSousa, Audrey Knox, Grayson Lord, William Osborne, Georgia Toland and Brandon Wilbur.

• Education Foundation Grants – The Board of the Old Rochester Tri-Town Education Foundation has selected four grant recipients for the 2010-2011 academic year, bringing the total grants awarded to educators in the tri-town schools up to 12. This year's grantees are:

Mike Devoll, Principal of Old Rochester Regional High School, to establish small student advisory groups at the high school designed to promote academic success, encourage school community involvement, provide support for students and position students for future success.

Diane Leroy, Grade 2 teacher at Center School, to establish a monarch butterfly garden/habitat to facilitate student understanding of life cycles and create a community resource.

Marissa Hughes, Grade 1 teacher at Center School, for "From Egg to Chick" that will establish an incubator project allowing students to be actively engaged in science enrichment activities of hatching, observing and journaling.

Laura Mirabito, Old Hammondtown School Grade 6 teacher, will be funded for "Steps to Respect," an anti-bullying program.

The Old Rochester Tri-Town Education Foundation, a fund of the Community Foundation of Southeastern Massachusetts (CFSEMA), was established in 2007 to raise an endowment – called the Lighthouse Fund – to support enrichment activities, academic, cultural and civic, in the public schools of Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester. The grants are a part of this effort.

Movie Review

Who Am I?

By Rob Gonsalves
www.robsmovievault.com

Splice*. Starring Adrien Brody and Sarah Polley. Directed by Vincenzo Natali. Running time: 104 minutes. MPAA rating: R.

Like a lot of David Cronenberg's early work, Splice isn't science fiction so much as science poetry. I'll warn you up front that I couldn't possibly care less about whatever technical snafus or plot illogic the movie may or may not have. It hit me hard and deep. It's a work of sick beauty. Splice concerns itself with a half-human, half-animal genetic hybrid created by two scientists who are also a couple, Clive (Adrien Brody) and Elsa (Sarah Polley). Those character names should clue you in that the movie aims more for the pathos of The Bride of Frankenstein than for the action and shock beats of most sci-fi monster mashes. We begin by identifying with Clive and Elsa. It isn't long before we start identifying with their creation, named "Dren," who seems like an innocent, girlish creature pulled this way and that by instincts she can't begin to comprehend.

You notice I use "who" and "she" rather than "that" and "it." We come to see Dren as a person, albeit a strange one, and when she's referred to by one scientist or another as "it" — including by Clive and Elsa at certain points — we experience it as an offense. Dren is capable of feeling and thought. She doesn't speak, but communicates with Scrabble tiles that she is bored with life in the barn where her creators have stashed her away from the world. At first she imprints emotionally on Elsa, then on Clive. Meanwhile, Clive and Elsa argue over her as if she were ... a specimen? A pet? Their child? The distinctions blur.

Splice was directed by Vincenzo Natali, who made an indie splash in 1997 with the math-flavored thriller Cube. No less a viewer than David Cronenberg himself called it "as ruthlessly beautiful and compelling as a geometrical theorem." Well, Splice more closely resembles a genetic theorem, and it's not just about the genes played with in a lab. Parenting, Splice says, is itself genetic experimentation. Elsa, we learn, had a rough childhood at the hands of a crazy mom who made her sleep in a bare shoebox of a room and denied her any toys. As Dren matures — an accelerated process that eventually makes way for a computer-enhanced Delphine Chanéac, a 31-year-old French actress/model who deals a superb wordless performance — Elsa goes from warmly maternal to coldly maternal. In one of many saddening sequences, Elsa won't let Dren have a cat she's befriended; then Elsa relents, and Dren shows her what she thinks of that.

Clive, meanwhile, journeys from wanting to kill Dren to wanting to indulge her lust for him. The scene in question is bizarre and wildly funny, and makes some sort of biological sense: the weird, mutant pheromones she's throwing off must be extreme, and Dren's instinct, like any fast-maturing organism who will probably die soon, is to reproduce. Splice is a profoundly strange family-triangle drama that touches a lot of heretofore undiscovered nerves — I felt that this was what the Cronenberg of Shivers and Rabid might've done if his DNA were spliced with that of the David Lynch of Eraserhead. Dren has two predecessors, sluglike mounds of flesh named Ginger and Fred, who interact amorously (and, like so much else in the film, absurdly beautifully) until nature changes their dynamic. Katherine Hepburn reportedly once said of the real Ginger and Fred, "He gives her class and she gives him sex appeal." Vincenzo Natali and Delphine Chanéac give a pulpy premise class and sex appeal, respectively. Though of a very unusual kind.

Tri-Town Students in NB Ballet's Cinderella

The School of the New Bedford Ballet will be performing their premiere of Cinderella at the Zeiterion Theatre on Saturday, June 12 at 2:00 pm and 8:00 pm.

This is New Bedford Ballet's 23rd full-length ballet production, but its first under their new artistic director, Rebecca Waskiel-Marchesseault, a resident of New Bedford who studied ballet at New Bedford Ballet in her youth and then performed professionally before returning to the school as an instructor and now its artistic director.

New Bedford Ballet's production of Cinderella will take this variation of the original "rags to riches" fairytale and showcase it as the gift of classical ballet, wrapped in humor and the promise of a "happily ever after" ending. Original choreography by Ms. Waskiel-Marchesseault and New Bedford Ballet instructors James Brown and Ashlie Swallow, enables dancers ranging in age from five to eighteen years to cast their own enchanting spells over the audience and bring the pages of this timeless story to life.

New Bedford Ballet students from throughout the South Coast region are featured in the performance. Old Colony High School senior, Katherine Stellato, as the Fairy Godmother, will transform Cinderella (Elizabeth Mello) into a beautifully adorned princess. A pumpkin magically becomes a golden carriage just in time to take Cinderella to the ball. Despite the fury and antics of her stepmother, danced by Old Rochester Regional High School junior Emily Bungert, and stepsisters, danced by Rebecca Bier and ORR junior Sofia Gabriel, Cinderella meets and falls in love with her prince, portrayed by Raeman Kilfoil, soloist at Festival Ballet Providence and ballet instructor at New Bedford Ballet. Lead dancers also include Aaron Gomes and Stuart Caldwell as the prince's friends, who appear in several featured dance pieces

SALOME'S STARS

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Still operating under a full head of self-esteem makes you want to tackle a matter you had shied away from. OK. But be sure to arm yourself with facts before you make a move.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) That smart move you recently made caught the attention of a lot of people, including some with financial deals to offer. Use your Taurean wariness to check them out thoroughly.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Shyness might keep you from asking for more information on a potentially important matter. But your curiosity grows stronger by midweek and gives you the impetus for data-gathering.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Taking on too many tasks may not be the wise thing to do at this time. You might overspend both your physical and emotional energy reserves, and have to miss out on some upcoming events.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Try to keep your spending at an affordable level. Splurging now -- especially on credit -- could create a problem if your finances are too low for you to take advantage of a possible opportunity.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You might not approve of a colleague's behavior during much of the week. But don't play the judgmental Virgo card here. As always, check the facts before you assume the worst.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Coping with an old issue that has suddenly re-emerged could take a big toll on your emotional energies. Decide whether you really want to pursue the possibilities here.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) For all your skill in keeping your secrets safe, you could be unwittingly letting one slip out by the way you're behaving in that new relationship. Are congratulations soon to be in order?

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Good old-fashioned horse sense could help you get around those who unknowingly or deliberately put obstacles in your way. Ignore the confusion and follow your own lead.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) A puzzling attitude change in a colleague from friendly to chilly might stem from a long-hidden resentment suddenly bubbling up. An open and honest talk should resolve the problem.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) This week, many ever-generous Aquarians might find themselves feeling an acquisitive urge. If so, indulge it. You've earned the right to treat yourself to wonderful things.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Expect to get a lot of advice on how to go about implementing your plans. But once you've sorted it all out, you'll probably find that, once again, your way will be the best way.

BORN THIS WEEK: You enjoy the quiet times of your life, but when you're in the mood, you can throw a party everyone will want to go to.

am on Sunday, June 13, at Old Rochester Regional Junior High School. Registration will begin at 10:00 am. There is a $10 registration fee that will include food, a t-shirt and water bottle. Additional fund-raising is not required but encouraged through our new Heavy Hitter program. Any child who raises $250.00 or more will be recognized as a "Heavy Hitter" and awarded special prizes to distinguish their achievement. Contributions can be made payable to the Pan-Mass Challenge. For more information, to register for the ride, or to volunteer go to https://kids.pmc.org/mattapoisett.

The Pan-Mass Challenge is a 192-mile bike-a-thon that draws 4,000 cyclists from 30 states and six countries to ride across Massachusetts to raise millions of dollars for cancer research and treatment for Dana-Farber Cancer Institute through its Jimmy Fund. In its 31st year, the PMC generates nearly 50 percent of the Jimmy Fund's annual revenue. It is the most successful athletic fundraising event in the nation, as it raises and contributes more money to charity than any other, now donating every cent of every rider-raised dollar. In 2009, the PMC donated over $30 million dollars to the Jimmy Fund.

Sippican School Band Blast

The 8th Annual Sippican School Band Blast is scheduled for Thursday, June 10, from 5:00 pm to 8:00 pm on the Sippican School Front Lawn. This is the fundraiser for all our music programs at Sippican School. Dollars raised pay for Music Festival fees and transportation, equipment purchase, repair and replacement, reed purchase and scholarship funds. The band members are the hosts, and our generous band families make it a success. This year's theme is the Olympics. Attractions are the water slide, dunk tank, moon bounce, cake walk, tie dye (thanks to Erin Sullivan), and lots of great games and prizes.

Live Music will be provided by Aaron Norcross and his band from 5:00 to 6:00 pm. All Sippican bands play from 6:00 to 8:00 pm. Food available includes hamburgers, hot dogs, pizza, seafood, cotton candy, popcorn, slushies, and a bake sale.
